

Negative: Summer 2007 Festival Tour

Part 1. Kivenlahtirock

Festival: Kivenlahtirock
Location: Espoo, Kivenlahti
Date: 9. June 07 (5.35pm)
Weather: Sunny, +32'c
Attendance: about 3500

"It's a misty morning, but I feel like I can fly"

The weather was great for both Kivenlahtirock and the crowd. On the day of the event, the temperature climbed up to 32 degrees celcius and people had been waiting for Negative in front of the festival entrance for days. Lucky for those fans, the festival staff had taken very good care of their safety and water. The patience paid off well when these fans got to the front row once the gates were opened.

Kivenlahti drew families; the crowd held people of all ages from children to elderly people. The most loyal fans stood in front of the main stage all day long waiting for Negative, even though it must have been exhausting in the sun shine. Fans seemed to worry about technical issues before the gig and everyone was eager to see what Christus might be wearing this time. Finally everyone's worries were sent away when the announcer invited Negative to the stage.

Over 3500 people got their money's worth. Everything worked well, and Sir's leather pants got the attention they deserved. Although the band didn't really notice very many familiar faces in the crowd, their smiles got more sincere when the gig proceeded and the audience was enjoying every minute of it.

The Moment of Our Love did the trick as always and Glory of the Shame made the crowd go wild. Jonne's voice carried the songs perfectly despite of the lively jumping when singing. When Antti decided to jump off the stage to get closer to the front row, we saw everything a good festival gig needs in order to be perfect.

The gig had to be cut a bit short because of the festival schedule and the last song heard, was In My Heaven. This wrapped up the gig quite nicely, even though it seemed to be ruined for some fans because of a bumble bee that tried to get "too friendly" with everyone, but this is something that one can't avoid at outdoor gigs... The band was very satisfied with the gig and everyone was feeling good, except later on Antti was not pleased about accidentally missing the after party with Apulanta. Jay Slammer told us, that this festival trip's length was "perfect", when some of the band members chose to make it longer for themselves.

After the gig, the boys gave autographs, posed for pictures with the fans and watched other bands play. The backstage area had a sauna and we also heard that the salsa was really good and hot, so Negative enjoyed themselves during the hot summer day. The tired, sunburned but very happy fans started making their way back home and looking forward to the next festival with Negative that would, of course, make the day perfect again.
